Treasurers report: Brian was not available, so no report was given.

Old Business

The December Club Breakfast was held at Crazy Ottos in Acton. This was not a club meeting but purely social. It was very successful and most everyone stayed for two hours.

General Class Study Group was discussed. Information is available by a link on the AADARC website home page. The first meeting will be February 23rd, with three additional study sessions followed by the exam on March 30. There is a flyer that I will distribute to the membership.

New Business

Election of officers was conducted with the following results. Prior to the voting, all the positions were discussed, and a new position was offered and that is Program Chair. The role for this position would be to organize and line up presentations and events for future club meetings.

The results of the voting were as follows:

President Mark

Secretary Gary

Treasurer Brian

Program Chair Monroe

Winter Field Day was discussed. This is an annual event but is not sponsored by the ARRL. The date is January 28-29. Club members who wish to participate may do so but there is no organized club event at this time.

The annual club calendar was presented, and comments were received. Some changes will be made, and it will be posted on the AADARC website.

Open Forum

Mark mentioned that more work was required to add Paypal to our website. Suggestions included using Zelle and Venmo as possible alternatives.
