Hats / Shirts

Jana will continue to look into this.

Website "For Sale" Page

Mark demonstrated the for-sale page on the AADARC website. This will go live very soon.

Club call sign renewal

No progress made on this. On Mark's to-do list.

Operations Day at the park

There seems to be interest in doing a one-day event in the park. Mark to circulate potential dates.

Parade Float

Jana will look into how we might present the club for the Acton Parade in July.

New Business

Agua Dulce Parade

Gary and Monroe reviewed the parade and the club support. Only three club members were available, which is barely enough.

Club calendar review

We reviewed activities for the final club meetings of 2023. There will be presentations in both October and November with the club breakfast in December.

CERT Training

Mark discussed a CERT class being held starting in October. He will distribute a flyer to the membership. There is also an opportunity for the club to make a presentation at the event. More details coming soon.

Handheld programming session

Mark offered to stay after the next club meeting to help those with new radios to learn how to program them for the local repeaters. Brian offered to provide his repeater list.

Presentation

Mark provided a presentation on the Gibson Girl, a WWII emergency transmitter used by downed aviators.

Open Forum

Brian discussed his participation in the Silver State Challenge car race in Nevada.

Jana suggested that we produce a club roster. Mark will bring a preliminary version to the October club meeting.

Brian said there will be an ARES drill on September 30 from 8AM-12PM. Tune in on the Quartz Hill repeater.

Mark J indicated his difficulties with the FCC and his login.

Noel said the Santa Clarita club did a tour of the battleship Iowa.

Gary reminded the club of the difficulties of securing the rotunda at the Acton Park for Field Day.

Monroe mentioned that the October presentation will be virtual from the Long Island CW Group.

It was suggested that the club breakfast be held on Saturday, December 9.

Meeting Adjourned

Brian made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Laura seconded., the motion was carried.
